WITNESS STATEMENT

Recorded under Section 161, Fictional Code of Criminal Procedure

Name of Witness: S. Reddy (fictional)

Designation: Junior Copyist, Sessions Court Riverdale (fictional)

Recorded by: Insp. A. Verma, Riverdale Central P.S.

Date: 02 April 1999 (Specimen)

Statement

"I have been working as a Junior Copyist attached to the Sessions Court, Riverdale, for the past six years. The case file relating to the cinema fire matter was kept in the almirah assigned to the Ahlmad, M. Thomas, along with other pending sessions files."

"Sometime in the third week of March 1999, I noticed Accused No. 1 sitting with M. Thomas near the record room on two separate afternoons, which was unusual as parties are ordinarily not permitted inside the record room. On one occasion I saw the cinema-fire file open on the table between them."

"When the file was subsequently required for a hearing in early April, I noticed that it appeared thinner than before and that some pages were missing from the middle portion. I did not say anything at the time as M. Thomas was my senior in the record room and I did not wish to create trouble."

"I am making this statement voluntarily and without any pressure from the investigating officer."
